Retail merchants frequently get the idea into their heads that because they sell goods that the public must have, and sell on a very low margin, advertising would not help them any. There never was a more erroneous notion. Surely advertising will increase any legitimate business, and the grocer, dry goods merchant, or any one who has anything to sell and does not use his local paper, or in any other way does not keep himself before the public, is neglecting one of the most powerful aids he can find in his effort to secure success. Seventeen Nominations for the Beat St. Louis on Latter's Ground | Fine Work of Loos, Portsmouth Twirler-Eight Men Get

The June closing stakes of the Kentucky Trotting-Horse Breeders' Association, for its thirty-fifth annual meaning in october, have closed with an overwheiming entry of 227 horses and control in this fall. The Lexington association at the state of the s should take warning from Hick's example.

Loos, the Portsmouth pitcher, played a fine game Saturday with Roancke.
Loos struck out six men, got three hits and had three assists to his credit. This was counteracted to a very small extent by one error and four free passes.
Altogether, it was a very good record, with a batting percentage of 1,000.
In Saturday's game every man on the Richmond team secured a hit cave Wallace. Wallace, however, had six put-outs to his credit.

In a double-header in the Tri-State

These same games were featured by leavy hitting. In the first there were three two-baggers, two three-baggers and five home runs. In the second there were three two-baggers three-bagger, and three home runs.

Bob Pender has good cause for satisfaction. Richmond aided mightly in staving a hole in the good ship Mary Jane during the first visit of the crew here, but the tables are now reversed. Richmond couldn't have helped plug the hole up better if they had used regulation calking material.

Maybe that Norfolk team isn't but-Maybe that Norfolk team isn't putting up the real article. Since losing a double-header to Portsmouth on Decoration Day, the Crew did not drop a game until yesterday. This gives them a record of six straight yietories, which is not all bad for a team that was the joke of the league at the beginning of the season.

safe to say that the nineteen-inning affair between Trinity and Wosleyan on Thursday comes pretty close to the mark. The Fork of Cunningham, the Wesleyan pitcher, is especially noteworthy. Cunningham is only a froshman, but has established a great record during his two years at the Northern institution.
